

Platinum Blonde, Crying Over You

Crying, crying over you

Intensify security

Break the chains that hold me down

No chance for sanity around here

Cause I ain't gonna be your fool no more

Another mask of innocence

You hide away for convenience

It's just a change of attitude oh yeah, yeah

Cause I ain't gonna be your fool no more

Cause I ain't crying, crying over you

All you ever want me to do

Crying over you

You never seem to state your case

You always make me lose it, lose it

I'm getting tired of running the race oh yeah, yeah

Chorus

Nothing's gonna change my direction

Cause I ain't gonna cry'

Crying, crying over you

All you ever want me to do

Crying over you, oh no, oh no
