

Platinum Blonde, Crying Over You

Crying, crying over you

Intensify security
Break the chains that hold me down
No chance for sanity around here
Cause I ain't gonna be your fool no more

Another mask of innocence
You hide away for convenience
It's just a change of attitude oh yeah, yeah

Cause I ain't gonna be your fool no more
Cause I ain't crying, crying over you
All you ever want me to do
Crying over you

You never seem to state your case
You always make me lose it, lose it
I'm getting tired of running the race oh yeah, yeah

Chorus

Nothing's gonna change my direction
Cause I ain't gonna cry'

Crying, crying over you
All you ever want me to do
Crying over you, oh no, oh no
