

Platinum Blonde, Temple Of The Newborn

In my mind, touch and taste
It's a dream, written on my face
Worship me, conquer you
Look in my mirror

Pleasure in the temple of the new born
Like to stay in love here
The temple of the new born
Like this way, I love it

Now, I embrace
My soul, forever in this place
Close to me, I will hold
Your reflection

Chorus

In my mind, touch and taste
It's a dream, written on my face
Worship me, conquer you
Look in my mirror

Chorus
