

Platitude, Dance Thru the Fire

You've been wandering through your life
Without a troubled mind
Waiting for a revelation
Goodness made you blind

And I see a burning flame
It glows like the faces of the failed when the night is falling

You have never turned around to face the blackened skies
Ages of deception will haunt you
You'll sacrifice

And I see a living hope
I wonder if this will make you up
&gt;From that evil nightmare
Nightmare

You will wreath in fortune till that day your time will end
Then your burning soul will be destroyed by evil

And I see a living hope
I wonder if this will make you up
&gt;From that evil nightmare
Nightmare

And I see a burning flame
It glows like the faces of the failed when the night is falling

Nightmare
Nightmare

You'll wake up from your nightmare
Face the devil look him in the eye
Nightmare
Your time will end
