

Platitude, Deception

I have seen the blackened sky
A place where immortal people seems to die
I don't believe in jesus christ
But lord I'm seeking paradise
I hesitate

You're chasing shadows from the past
Why are you looking back
Deceptive ways are hard to lead
Loosing track

why does my road feel so long
Will we travel on
Chains around my feet
I won't get to where I want

I was sent here by the dark
The quest to lead a child on the bridge of life
But the demons built the bridge
So evil now will take it's vengeance
Breaking it

You're chasing shadows from the past
Why are you looking back
Deceptive ways are hard to lead
Loosing track

Why does my road feel so long
Will we travel on
Chains around my feet
I won't get to where I want

I have seen the blackened sky
A place where immortal people seems to die
I don't believe in jesus christ
But lord I'm seeking paradise
I hesitate

You're chasing shadows from the past
Why are you looking back
Deceptive ways are hard to lead
Loosing track
