

Platitude, Evil Sky

Standing here out in the dark
No sign of heaven
All the hope has disappeared
Burned up in flames

The rain is pouring down
Washing me free from see/sea
No one will ever know

There is no hope and death is closing up
I'll fight until I drop
I'll turn away to face the evil sky
I'll stand there petrified

My body is as cold as ice
I start to shiver
Far away from paradise
Is what I am/had

The rain is pouring down
Washing me free from see
No one will ever know

There is no hope and death is closing up
I'll fight until I drop
I'll turn away to face the evil sky
I'll stand there petrified

The rain is pouring down
Washing me free from see
No one will ever know

There is no hope and death is closing up
I'll fight until I drop
I'll turn away to face the evil sky
I'll stand there petrified
