

Platitude, Illusions

You're lost inside yourself
Trying to find out
Why am I chained in misery

I'm seeking wisdom
'Cause I know knowledge is the key
The key to open our minds to see what there's to be

I search my mind
Who's been there
Who stole my thoughts
I live in lies

Don't try to change my mind
Don't try to change my mind

Fading lights surrounds my head
I'm getting weary
Are these illusions maybe real

I'm seeking wisdom
'Cause I know knowledge is the key
They key to open our minds to see what there's to be

I search my mind
Who's been there
Who stole my thoughts
I live in lies

Don't try to change my mind
Don't try to change my mind

I search my mind
Who's been there
Who stole my thoughts
I live in lies

Don't try to change my mind
Don't try to change my mind
Don't try to change my mind
Don't try to change my mind
