

Platters, You'll Never Never Know

(You'll never know)
You'll never never know I care
You'll never know the torch I bear You'll never know it for I won't show it
Oh no, you'll never never know

(You'll never know)
You'll never never see me cry
Not even when you're glancing by
For I won't weaken
When we're speakin'
Oh no, you'll never never know

You'll know the use to me that I was before
You'll see the "used to be"
That one you did adore

(You'll never know)
No no I, no I won't reveal the way I really, truly feel
but if you guess it
I'll confess it
Oh darling now's the time to glow
Or else you'll never never know

You'll know the use to me
that I was before
You'll see the "used to be"
That one you did adore

(You'll never know)
No no I, no I won't reveal
the way I really, truly feel
but if you guess it
I'll confess it
Oh darling now's the time to glow
Or else you'll never No no you'll never
Oh no you'll never ever know
