

Pleymo, Kubrick

Take your time, your time your time everybody know you will never be like this don't be worried worried worried

it's my tribute to a master of his art I think he was the one there's no many of his kind danger pictures, darkside pictures bad behaviors and a vision of the future

(2x)
hands up hands up for stanley hands up hands up for kubrick clockwork orange alex devil's eyes horns and halos nocturnal flies surrounded by voyeurs and crack smocking lawyers nasty ah ah Stanley fueled by the drama and he will never be erased of the memories his virtuosity launches me he will always stay in my mind territory nasty ah ah Stanley bring it out the drama

Take your time, your time your time

how many guys copy ideas of his work psycho movies, palsy, ballsy he'll stay on my mind for a long time crazy ah ah Stanley fueled by drama..

Take your time, your time your time
