

Plumb, Worlds Collide: A Fairy Tale

We never talked about it
'cause you never even cared
And what you really wanted
I never even had
'cause what may seem right
And what may be wrong
Seems out of sight
In this place we belong
Giving everything
Giving everything for love
I'm finding out that it's not enough
There's nothing left between you and i
I'm finding faith but losing us
Where worlds collide
Together we seemed perfect
A fairy tale for show
And looking on the outside
You'd never even know
That we're just not right
When compromises is wrong
Seems out of sight
In this place we belong
Giving everything
We're just not right
When compromise is wrong
Seems out of sight
