

Plus 44, Broken Hearts

said you love me
and I said "I love you too"; but look how you've been fine stupid thing, stupid thing to do said you needed me
I said "I need you too";
and all that time I wasted trying to stop you said you wanted me
I said "I want you too";
but you didn't realise that I thought I wanted you Broken hearts with broken strings are all that I have seen
'till today you left me
you're not even seventeen
'till that day things have not changed they're still the same as broken hearts and broken strings remain
said you love me
and I said "I love you too";
said you needed me
I said "I need you too";
and all that time I wasted trying to stop you
said you wanted me
I said "I want you too";
but you didn't realise that I thought I wanted you Broken hearts with broken strings
(whispering voice)
broken hearts and broken strings for me [x7, getting louder] Broken hearts with broken strings
