

Plus/Minus, The Queen Of Detroit

All of a sudden I am flying in a plane
Beeline to michigan when new york is insane
Realign my head because there's nothing else to do
Drink coffee to divine why I am so confused

And then I found myself walking with the Queen of Detroit
An audience with someone whose life I have not destroyed

You're dealing with a kid that doesn't have a clue
That chasing you around is not the thing to do

And then I found myself walking with the Queen of Detroit
An audience with someone whose life I have not destroyed
But give me time and I can mess up anything at all
And I'll be fine after I take advantage of your fall

And then I found myself walking with the Queen of Detroit
An audience with someone whose life I have not destroyed
But give me time and I can mess up anything at all
And I'll be fine after I take advantage of your fall
