

Plus One, Calling Down An Angel

*Nate*

You're afraid, it's all come down to this place where dreams have fallen to the ground just look up, you'll make it through Cause there's a heavenly Being
That's watching over you

*Chorus*

Calling down an angel who Will help you believe
Sending out a prayer
Down on my knees
Reaching up to heaven knowing
You will someday see
There's hope beyond the struggle
Just hold on
I'm calling down an angel

*Jason*

It's not too late
It's almost over
If you'll just wait you'll feel it lifting off your shoulder
So keep believing
The sun always promises a new day
It'll stop the rain
Break the chains
And chase the pain away

*Chorus*

*Nathan*

You've been trying to be strong
You've been waiting for so long
Will your miracle ever come
Heaven's holding every single tear you cry
And if you start to feel alone just know that I am

*Chorus*
