

Po' Girl, Old Mountain Line

i'm standing here
by the side of the highway
i can see the city lights stretched out before me
i'm coming home
my own true love
i wanna hear the voice
that i've been dreaming of i'm singing here by the old mountain line i can hear the wheels turning as i close my eyes
my own true love
i wanna see the smile
