

Pocket Change, Remember

Why does it seem, when you meet that special someone, they go away?

Why can't it be just for once it can happen to me?

The times we've spent hanging around each other.

So much fun.

Watching your smile filled me with so much joy and laughter.

(Chorus:)

Sometimes things happen for a reason.

At least that's what I tell myself.

Will you come back?

I'll never know.

All I can do is wait and hope so.

I'll wait for your call or maybe I'll just write you a letter.

I know this place.

It's not very far.

Someday I'll see you there.

Until that day I'll make sure to remember you.
