

Pocket Change, Your Song

I see a place, I see a face,
I'm in my own world and that's where I'm staying.
I feel at peace.
Something so powerful, cleansing my entire.
And when I hear your song it makes me feel at ease.

(Chorus:)

And when I'm in the mood, maybe I'll play that song for you.
So I'll pop it in again and again.
It makes me feel better and I felt so bitter.
Too weak, too strong, no right, not wrong.
Leave me alone I'm busy listening to her song.
