

Poco, Just In Case It Happens

(Richie Furay)

What does it matter to me that you've gone
The memory's all in a dream
And though it seems odd to be
With a good night yawn, the heartache is gone
Yes Indeed

For lovin' you I have been such a fool (fool)
Hardly knowin' the game or the rules
Nothin' for me could I see except for your teasin'
I guess I was just dreamin'
Holdin' onto promises from you

(Repeat first verse)

Just In Case It Happens, you see
I have paid all my dues faithfully
Now the peace of mind I'll feel in time is worth the misgiving
A new beginnin's clingin' in my head
The rest of it's been said

(Repeat first verse)
