

Pods, Daydream Green

Throw me in a daydream
Where big blue eyes are red
I've got a little greenie beast
Munchin on my head
I don't know your name
You're all the same
I only sleep with Mary Jane
Sister's lost her faith in God
Billy's mouth is dry
Mom and Dad just won't shut up
Me I'm feelin fine
I can't feel no pain
I place no blame
I owe it all to Mary Jane
I stopped searching long ago
For someone strong and true
Mary Jane believes in me
Why would I need you?
I can't hear a thing
Don't hear your scream
My mind it floats in daydream green
I tried reaching out
But I was shot to dust
I never met a person
Who loves me like she does
Help me hide the shame
My sugar cane
My one and only Mary Jane
