

Poema Arcanus, Distances

Lyrics & music: Igor Leiva

Now is your time to fade into this uncertain night
Now is your time to freeze the moments crystallized

Pre Chorus:

And even if I struggled with fate
You would run free and be disowned
And if the words are sounding strange
Then their meaning is clear

Chorus:

As the loss steals my breath
As a part of me dies
I look back
And I see the path, I will never walk again

Just sleep my friend in this garden of memories
Just sleep and keep time standing still

Pre Chorus
2 X Chorus

Trying to bring back a past already dead
I will fail... anyway
A complete circle I try to destroy
I will fail... anyway

Pre Chorus
Chorus

The distance attempts
To dissolve the memory
But in the end
These old crystals I will take to my grave
