

Poema Arcanus, Errant Souls

The night pierces in your eyes
This reality touches your soul
Desires and fears cover your heart
Those dreams that keep you alive

The beauty is so fragile
So little the beautiful
Just a dream hidden
Under death's cloak

..... Life is a moment into death ...

Chorus :
We're just errant souls
Lonely and painful
Is our wandering
Along this cold world

Eternity keeps you awake
Only illusions give you life
Just shining spheres
Into our dark spectre

Immerse in a sea of lies
False image is what you are
A point in this black infinity
Forgotten creature in the land of emptyness

Chorus
