

Poema Arcanus, Impressions

Lyrics & music: Michel Leroy

Between my death and infinity...

Amazed by the colours of eternity...of eternity

Into insanity's claws
So much existence is lost
So much ecstasy gone

Bow down to the forces that gave us our random shape

The eternal explosion or the phantom statement Man is the endless mirror and the darkness is not so (real)

This suffering isn't haunting for the one who knows, for the one who is already touching ...his gods

Fears cast the gesture of horror
Cloaked around humanity
Afraid of next step Fear to continue

New stares emerge
A more complete state of mind rips the one that escaped

No way out.
No way out from here
This is the new joy (The new joy which we feel)
