

Point Of Grace, All I'll Ever Need

Written by Julie Adkison, Gayla Borders, Jeff Borders

Some days I'm fragile

Some days I'm stronger

Sometimes I just want to run

But Your tender mercies gently pursue me

When all is said and done

Chorus

Where else would I go

Who else could there be

No one but You, Lord, can see

Can see all of me, oh

You opened my eyes

Oh, how I believe

In everything You are 'cause You are

All I'll ever need

My heart's full of questions

The future's uncertain

But I'm gonna stand on what's true

'Cause I have discovered

A love like no other

The love I've found in You

Chorus
