Point Of Grace, Dying To Reach You

He looked through temples of time
To see you right where you stand
He emptied all of Himself
So He cuold reach out His hand
To give hope and meaning
To the wasted away
And you are one of the ones
That He was dying to save

He was dying to reach you Trying to meet you Where you need Him most You've been living in search of The whole truth and real love Your whole life through You can open your heart 'Cause He's dying to reach you He's standing there at the door You can hear Him call you by name He simply waits to forgive All of the guilt and the shame He gave up His own life And He still bears the scars He only wants to receive you So come as you are (repeat) Oh, He has waited time and time before You must be still and know that He is Lord (repeat)