

Point Of Grace, Love Enough

On your own

On your own
All alone and crying
A wounded soul on an island in the blue
Love's required
But you're so tired from trying
Don't give up
There's enough love for you

(Chorus)

There's enough love for a broken heart
Love enough for another start
Love enough in the father's arms for you
When it feels like the tears won't end
When Loneliness is your only friend
There's love enough
Love enough for you

On His own

All alone and dying
He gave up everything for me and you
Hear your heart
It's time to start relying
On the one who had love enough for you

(Repeat Chorus)

Like a cup that's running over
Like a well that won't run dry
From the storm a constant cover
For a heart, the sole supply

(Repeat Chorus 2x)

Love enough for you
Love enough, love enough
Love enough for me
Love enough for you
