

Point Of Grace, Refuge Of Love

Lord, I need for You to know
It's only Your love I would die for
So please say You'll never go
When You say, that You'll stay
Ooh, words fall short of sentiment
As tears fall from my eyes
Cause hearts fail on all sides
While mine's safe inside

Your refuge of love
Oh, You're my refuge of love
For so long, I never thought
I'd find You
Oh, You're my refuge of love
Love's never been so right
Love's never been so right
Cause I finally found
A haven for my heart
In Your refuge of love

Guess I believed, You'd come and go
Like every other love of my life
And ooh I tried You so, yet faithfully
Your patience won my willingness
Slowly it became clear to me
That You gave Your life
So I could spend mine

In Your refuge of love
Oh, You're my refuge of love
For so long, I never thought
I'd find You
Oh, You're my refuge of love
Love's never been so right
Love's never been so right
Cause I finally found
A haven for my heart
In Your refuge of love
