

Point Of Grace, When The Wind Blows

Verse 1:

Night turns to daylight and things are quite the same
You wake up and make up another days routine
Then the sun begins to shine as if the face of God were near
And the trumpets sound is played as if all the world could hear

Chorus:

That's the day when the wind blows
That's the day the earth begins to move
When the lion and the lamb start walking two by two
That's the day when the wind blows
When the sky is torn in two
And the Lord of Lords and all his glory comes for you
Ohh when the wind blows.

Verse 2:

Beside you behind me believers on their knees
And some how you know now everyone you see
So hand in hand you fly away to meet him in the sky
This man that you have dreamed about, he's right before your eyes .

Chorus:

That's the day when the wind blows
That's the day the earth begins to move
When the lion and the lamb start walking two by two
that's the day when the wind blows
When the sky is torn in two
And the Lord of Lords in all his glory comes for you
ohh when the wind blows.

Chorus #2:

That's the day when the wind blows
When the earth begins to move
When the lion and the lamb start walkin two by two
When the wind blows
When the sky is torn in two
And the Lord of Lords in all his glory comes for you
Ohh when the wind blows, when the wind blows.

Be swept away, be swept away.
