

Point Of Recognition, Closer Than A Brother

To all I want in everything, everything I know is hallow, just when I needed you the most.

Then I find out you could never be closer.

Closer than a brother, struck down but not conquered.

Fill me up Holy Spirit with your goodness and your grace.

That I might walk in your footsteps and share what you've done in my life.

Closer than a brother.