

Point Of Recognition, No Regrets

United we stand, divided we fall.
As each one follows their call.
We all have hopes we all have dreams.
We got to push forward.
Standing side by side.
We can't let our pride get in the way.
We all have a voice, we've got to make a choice.
The choices we make right now will shape our future in the end.
No Grets.
We've got to make a choice to stick together.
Side by Side we can make a difference in the end.
