

Poison, Livin' In The Now

Got no time to think about good intentions
Got no time to think about indiscretions
Don't wanna think about past reflections
Don't wanna think about tomorrow

Chorus

Cuz I'm liv'in in the now, yeah

Hold tight it'll be alright

Liv'in in the now

Hold tight it'll be alright

A little unsure today

Lock you in a cage

Unkind thing to say

Flies into a rage

Chorus (2)

Everyday is shorter than the day before saving for a rainy day is just a metaphor

Chorus

It's so easy to offend

When venom is your friend

Wounds can never mend

And you don't try

Chorus (2)

Chorus

(Solo)

Now you watch me bleed

Cuz you never did believe me

Only to decieve with just one lie

Chorus (2)
