

Poison, Love On The Rocks

Love On the Rocks

She goes down slow like a shot of gin

She's got an angel's face and the devil's grin

She kinda stared me down as I looked her up

She said "I'm your poison, now you drink a cup."

In the heat of the night is when she comes alive

She's gonna push you push you til she's satisfied

I watch the ice melt fast on her red hot lips

She whispers "If you wanna taste my love why don't you swallow this."

CHORUS:

Love on the rocks

Love on the rocks

She's my shot

Love on the rocks

Ooooh lick it up

She gets so damn close you can feel her breathe

Just the way she moves, soft and slippery

She lives just around the corner, just down the street

All night we played the horizontal bop right between the sheets

Love on the rocks

Love on the rocks

She's my shot

Love on the rocks
