

Poko, The Way

Just take another second
You can leave this world behind
Sitting in the car
You're that introverted kind

Cause I know you
And you're alone
And everytime you ask me why
You can take everything you wanted in one night
Cause I don't want
To feel involved
You sit alone
You're taking notes
But people still believe you're putting up a fight
Cause tell me now
Do you want to have fun with others
And tell me now
Do you want to get drunk with others
It's such a shame
You used to come in to this darkness
You can't explain yourself
The way you used to be

Just take another moment
You can leave this place behind
Doing all the things
When you could never find the time
Maybe if it's perfect
You can take a look inside
Cause living is so easy
When you're learning how to fly

Cause I know you
And you're alone
And everytime you ask me why
You can take everything you wanted in one night
Cause I don't want
To feel involved
You sit alone
You're taking notes
But people still believe you're putting up a fight
Cause tell me now
Do you want to have fun with others
And tell me now
Do you want to get drunk with others
It's such a shame
You used to come in to this darkness
You can't explain yourself
The way you used to be

The kind of girl
You've got to ignore

Cause I know you
And you're alone
And everytime you ask me why
You can take everything you wanted in one night
Cause I don't want
To feel involved
You sit alone
Cause tell me now

And tell me now
You used to come in to this darkness
