

Polar Bear Club, Parked In The Parking Lot Of Yo

The clock struck twelve
2 hours ago
Time flies when you're stuck in last year

A person I've never met
The power he holds
Its so clear
But lightning, lightning crashes here
Lightning(x3)
Lightning crashes here

What's getting me through tonight? (tonight, tonight)
Gripping tightly, the thought of being home.
(The thought of being home)
Think about your headphones
Think about your bike
In the parking lot we were...
We were a quartet that night!

Each gonebye year
Coincides with thoughts
That I hold near
(That I hold dear)
To nothing

Are you feeling happiness?(x2)

Forget my needs
They are slowly closing in on me
It's guaranteed
I'm overreacting

What's putting me in tonight? (tonight, tonight)
Gripping tightly, the thought of being yours.
(The thought of being yours)
Think about your shackles
Think about your rights
Stomping hard, behind bars
Dislodging years of silent nights

Killing moods
Is my forte
With extreme vehemence
I stalk my prey
Are you feeling happiness?
'Cause I'm sure life's about being pissed.

Are you feeling happiness?

Are you feeling happiness?
Are you feeling happiness?
'Cause I'm sure life's about being pissed...
