

Polaris, As Usual

It's comin' 'round,
To run away,
Or disappear.
It's comin' 'round,
To run away,
Or disappear.

Tried climbin' up those frozen stairs,
I'm standing here, & nobody cares,
They're all there & all they see is nothing new,
'Cause nothing sparkles like it did when I knew you.

Walk around, as usual,
All alone, as usual,
It's getting late, as usual,
I can't go home.

I just won't leave my little room,
What's the point of me wearing blue?
One man parading, pull down my shades & rock the world,
It's better blue for them to see there to take the veil.

Walk around, as usual,
All alone, as usual,
It's getting late, as usual,
I can't go home, as usual.

It's comin' 'round,
To run away,
Or disappear.
It's comin' 'round,
To run away,
Or disappear.

(solo)

I can't find a sympathetic ear,
Another day, feels like another year
In a world forgetting by a world forgotten,
In a world forgetting by a world forgotten in a world forgetting.

Walk around, as usual,
All alone, as usual,
It's getting late, as usual,
I can't go home, as usual,
Walk around, as usual,
All alone, as usual,
It's getting late, as usual,
I can't go home, as usual.

It's comin' 'round,
To run away,
Or disappear.
It's comin' 'round,
To run away,
Or disappear.
It's comin' 'round,
To run away,
Or disappear.
It's comin' 'round,
To run away,
Or disappear. (It's coming around.)
It's comin' 'round,
To run away,

Or disappear. (It's coming around.)
It's comin' 'round,
To run away,
Or disappear. (It's coming around.)
It's comin' 'round,
To run away,
Or disappear. (It's coming around.)
