

Polica, Tiff (feat. Justin Vernon) me and her named tiffany born to breed in everything carrying round a prison bar fucking in the feathered tar early call the master flirts measuring up the pretty girls body buildings sickly fed need my tv, need my meds tiffany my vanity

compared to you, compared to me I'm a pawn in the hype machine you're a pawn in the caring scheme

Go ahead and play for keeps
Go ahead and play for keeps

one for tiger one for bear no one wants me no one cares playing rough without a fight I was yours a record time played my parts & pressing start you're a hero and I'm in charge cheating is a money maker shadow gloss a tricky faker don't want a diamond ring found a man, and he's found me it's a pact like a lions den you come out, but you can't come in

Go ahead and play for keeps
Go ahead and play for keeps make a pact with my secret son have the bullet he has the gun don't bother me to take my time wouldn't rush if i had what's mine keep it comin and keep em close how he rocks me and how it shows take a breath before the peak throw the bet to hold for keeps do your work and let me be I don't owe you anything

I'm a pawn in the hype machine, you're a pawn in the caring scheme we'll take one for the losing team, all the hearts and long lost dreams

Go ahead and play for keeps
Go ahead and play for keeps
