

Polopop, Feel

Sometimes when I listen carefully
I hear my thoughts screaming
Trying to get free
Sometimes when I think about you and me
I wonder what I should be saying

Oh I can feel..
I can feel my emotions bursting from inside
Oh I can feel..
And I don't think you appreciate that I can feel

How long do you think I can go on
Without expressing the feelings inside of me
And how strong do the thoughts I've thinking have to be
'Til they beat their way inside your head
