

Polopop, Inside My Eyes

I give you all the seconds I have to offer
And I wish it felt like enough
I dedicate my life to being with you
But it never feels like enough

Circling silently
Whispers call to me
Circling silently
Whispers call

Pulling down my eyelids beckoned by the dance inside my eyes

Stealing me of all I have to spare
And I'd give you more if I could
Holding me inside away from the world
If I could be with you forever I would

Circling silently
Whispers call to me
Circling silently
Whispers call

Pulling down my eyelids beckoned by the dance inside my eyes
Pulling down my eyelids beckoned by the dance inside my eyes
Pulling down my eyelids beckoned by the dance inside my eyes
Pulling down my eyelids beckoned by the dance inside my eyes
