(Pooh-Man)

Mike a.k.a cash money

Man I tell ya this nigga is funny

Always bragging to the girls about what he had

Sucker always told his dry ass has drama drag

Told the partners he was down with us

We should of figured he was out to get us

He had anthor partner named Jeff

He hooked up with him and game done left

Now we talk bad about me and my crew

High siding with bitchs and talking about fk Pooh

Now I know just how to handle this

Call up her sister and let her suck my dick

Or maybe I should call his women

And stick my dick in her motherfking mouth when I'm cumming

See here is some game for you motherfking fakers

He crossed game so he is a motherfking player hater

Player haters

(Verse 2)

I know your asking yourself what is a player hater

Anthor brother who hates me because my game is greater

See I got alot of female friends

I drive a '73 Chevy instead of an '89 Benz

When it comes to women I put my foot down

I give them respect but sometimes I have to clown

And niggas down appected game

So they get behind my back and talk bad about my name

Now I see if you was doing better than me

Now take what he's got and multiply times three

It ain't a bragging thang

I am just a nigga who refuses to cross game

Or let the a bitch be the reason

Man I tell ya it ain't shit but treason

I tell ya man niggas ain't shit

He's just mad because I am fking his bitch

See I fked her but never am I paying her
