

Poor Old Lu, Bartholomew Higgins

if you want to see what i am saying focus then, on our decisions blindness, greed, and empty feelings they're all ours and where are we now if you wanna see just listen to the light i can see glistening again and again to war for our freedom i haven't got my peace of mind i tell you this and you tell me to come inside it's warm and nice