

Pop!, Can't Say Goodbye

You and I never learn from our mistakes
Maybe that's why I always say the things another day (another day)
Even now when were staring at the truth
Once I see there hurting you
I know I'll try again
Why is it I'm so weak
Or Can I be so sure?
(cos) Everytime I try to say goodbye
Something makes me stay, I don't know why
No I just don't know why
It's right before I walk straight out that door
Something keeps me coming back for more
And I don't know why
I can't say goodbye
What is love?
Well it's the question that I feel
Is it the reason that I am weak
Or just a mystery?
Truth is cheap and that it cuts your with a knife
Words as cold as ice
They never come to me
Why is it I'm so weak
Or can I be so sure?
(cos) Everytime I try to say goodbye
Something makes me stay, I don't know why
No, I just don't know why
It's right before I walk straight out that door
Something keeps me coming back for more
And I don't know why
I can't say goodbye
The good news is running out
Cos I just can't say goodbye
Yeah, I know were gonna work it out
Cos I just can't say goodbye
(cos) Everytime i try to say goodbye
Something makes me stay I don't know why
No, I just don't know why
(No I just don't know why)
(cos) Everytime I try to say goodbye
Something makes me stay, I don't know why
And I don't know why
I can't say goodbye
Can't say goodbye, no, I just dont know why
Everytime that I try, I just break down and cry
Tell me why is it just I can't say goodbye?
