Porcupine Tree, Phase II

The LSD trip is a pilgrimage far out beyond your normal mind, into that risky and revelatory territory Well I never think that when I'm twenty-one, I'm twenty-one - I think of tomorrow or this minute...

And hope there's a tomorrow, 'cause I don't like what's going on in the world. I'm scared of that, mo I'm just... I'm just scared you know?

We're told that perhaps a million Americans, most of them young people, have made the LSD experienced and the LSD experienced that perhaps a million Americans, most of them young people, have made the LSD experienced that perhaps a million Americans, most of them young people, have made the LSD experienced that perhaps a million Americans, most of them young people, have made the LSD experienced that perhaps a million Americans, most of them young people, have made the LSD experienced that perhaps a million Americans, most of them young people, have made the LSD experienced that perhaps a million Americans, most of them young people, have made the LSD experienced that people is the people of the people is the people of t

I'm just... I'm just scared you know?

Everybody is... pretty uptight.

I'm just... I'm just scared...you know?

The LSD religionist knows; that the temple of worship is the human body, that the shrine must be lowAnd then the paintings on the walls were dripping. You know...you could see the paint coming do lit was like a... it was like a massage. It was so... it was so groovy, you can't believe how groovy... it I guess... it was... I guess the word for it is sensual... you know just... your body just oh! It grooved! For psychedelics are stimulators of ideas and feelings, but generally these ideas and feelings would lit were possible during a riot to spray small doses of LSD from a helicopter into the air... People was this trip really necessary?
