

Pornophonique, Game Over

She has taken all my money
She has taken all my live
She gave me good times
She gave me bad times
And then she gave me her good-bye
There's no heart inside of her
She is just a slot-machine
The most cold-heart evil zombie bitch that i have ever seen

My game is over
I'm not her lover
I'm not her lover anymore
She said sorry as she told me that I'm not even in her highscore
Forever and ever no more together
Such a vain endeavor in this game called love
No more lies
No more doubt
The game is over
Over and out

Now i'm scattered
Now i'm broken
I can't take it anymore
I ain't nothin' but the shadow of the man that i was before
And so i beg for mercy
For an extraball to play
One more life
Only one more life to face the trouble on my way

My game is over
I'm not her lover
I'm not her lover anymore
She said sorry as she told me that I'm not even in her highscore
Forever and ever no more together
Such a vain endeavor in this game called love
No more lies
No more doubt
The game is over
Over and out

Now all the players gettin' ready
Even though there's no way to win
They feed the slot-machines with tokens
They can't fill the void within

My game is over
I'm not her lover
I'm not her lover anymore
She said sorry as she told me that I'm not even in her highscore
Forever and ever no more together
Such a vain endeavor in this game called love
No more lies
No more doubt
The game is over
Over and out
