

Porter/Karczewska, On the Wrong Planet

Duet Porter/Karczewska prezentuje utwór 'On the Wrong Planet'

There is no highway that really lead me anywhere
Through broken homes and broken bones
Illusion of love never There

I've seen no blinding light just a piece in my eyes
I have deeply loved all of my women and deeply broken their hearts and lives

I'm on a wrong planet
I'm in a wrong place
I don't belong here
This been a mistake

I'm on a wrong planet
I'm in a wrong place
I don't belong here
I am from a different race

There no lies in silence but my words won't leave me alone
She keeps me alive with her crimson lips queen of darkness tied to stone

This bar is empty maybe it never existed at all now I am sitting into a hole and I am digging deep try to find my way out of this world

I'm on a wrong planet
I'm in a wrong place
I don't belong here
This been a mistake

I'm on a wrong planet
I'm in a wrong place
I don't belong here
I am from a different race

Uuuu

There is an empty house standing in a non named place
Once I saw myself sitting in there but I didn't recognize that face

I'm on a wrong planet
I'm in a wrong place
I don't belong here
This been a mistake

I'm on a wrong planet
I'm in a wrong place
I don't belong here
I am from a different race
