

Porter Wagoner, As Long As I'm Dreaming

As long as I'm dreaming you'll be in my heart dear
As long as I'm dreaming you'll never grow old
I'll build you a castle at the end of the rainbow
And as long as I'm dreaming I'll fill it with gold
A tree full of bluebirds will wake you each morning
A garden of roses will gather that dew
I'm hoping and praying that I'll never stop dreaming
For as long as I'm dreaming I'll always have you
[guitar]
A tree full of bluebirds...
