

Porter Wagoner, Ballad Of Love

Listen to the music play listen to what each word will say
They'll take you and I to heaven above as we live each story in each ballad of love
Play the music softly so we can hear every word
That tells of the beauty the sweetest on earth
Surely this feeling is love with each touch as we live each story in each ballad of love (fiddle)
I never knew love could be like this filled with such beauty with each tender kiss
Tell me each story will always be us as we listen to each ballad of love
Play the music softly...
