

Porter Wagoner, Cryin' Loud

Tonight I'm all alone in my lonely room outside the rain is falling slowly on
And when I close my eyes that's when I realize inside me something keeps calling
I'm cryin' loud loud loud it can't be her for you should see these teardrops falling
I'm cryin' loud loud loud it can't be her darling can't you hear my heart calling
(Calling) calling (calling) I'm cryin' loud it can't be her
[fiddle]
Calling for my love my one and only love I've cried till my pillow's wet with tears
No matter what you've done you're still the only one
So please come back and dry these tears
I'm cryin' loud loud loud...
