

Porter Wagoner, Haven't You Heard

Haven't you heard there's a new love for me
Haven't you heard you're just my used to be
She held out her hand said haven't you heard
I saw gold wedding band I was lost forward
I wanted to cry I wanted to die when she said these words (oh haven't you heard)
( guitar )
Haven't you heard there's a new love for me
Haven't you heard you're just my used to be
She pulled back her hand I wanted to cry
It was all I could stand to see her wavin' goodbye
I wanted to cry I wanted to die when she said these words (oh haven't you heard)
When she said these words oh haven't you heard
