

Porter Wagoner, Love You're So Beautiful Tonight

As night falls around us love's tender embrace replaces the sun's golden light
Then love show us beauty only love can describe love you're sure beautiful tonight
As you fill our hearts with tenderness and emotion inside
Lost in each other with the world closed outside
This must be like heaven it's heaven to you and I love you're sure beautiful tonight

Your nearness in the silence your rapid heartbeat
With your face touching mine then you whisper on my cheek
I'll love you till the stars in the heavens lose their light
Love you're sure beautiful tonight
As you fill our hearts...
Love you're sure beautiful tonight
