Porter Wagoner, Suppertime

Many years ago in days of childhood I used to play till evening shadows come Then winding down an old familiar pathway I heard my mother call at set of sun (Come home come home it's suppertime the shadows lengthen fast Come home come home it's suppertime we're going home at last)

You know some of the fondest memories of my childhood were woven around suppertime When my mother used to call from the backsteps of the old homeplace Come on home now son it's suppertime Oh gee but I'd love to hear that once again But you know for me time has woven a realization of a truth that's even more thrilling That's when the call comes from the portasls of glory And we'll gather round the table with the Lord himself At the greatest suppertime of them all (Come home come home it's suppertime we're going home at last)
