

Porter Wagoner, There's A Rainbow In Every Tear

There's a rainbow in every teardrop you're crying

There's a love song in every treetop above

There's a star's face in every snowflake that's falling

There's hope when our hearts dream of love

There's a diamond in every dewdrop that glistens

There's a gold mine in every sunset you see

There's a rainbow in every teardrop you're crying so dry up your tears and kiss me

(el.banjo - fiddle)

There's a rainbow in every teardrop...

So dry up your tears and kiss me
