

Possessed, The Eyes Of Horror

Every night
I see through eyes
Of a different lunatic

And every night I fantasize
In trancial mesmeric
All alone inside my head
Within my padded cell

Ruled by thoughts
Of another mind
Controlled by unseen eyes

In my mind I see the sun
Plunge into the sea...

And so the corpses
And the thrill
My mind is warped
Nothing's real
Do I dream
Or is it true
The piercing scream
She never knew

Every night
I see through eyes
Of a different lunatic

And every night I fantasize...
The eyes of horror!
